Victorian Local Government Rating System Review	The Victorian Government is conducted a full review into the Victorian Local Government Rating System. The report provided a list of 56 recommendation to be considered for the Victorian Local Government Rating System.	Completed	December 2020	https://www.localgovernment.vic.gov.au/council-governance/victorian-local-government-rating-system-review https://engage.vic.gov.au/rating-review

Victorian Ombudsman
Outsourcing of parking fine internal reviews – a follow-up report	The Ombudsman’s follow-up investigation report found that more than 17,400 parking fines could be overturned as it identified a further five councils, a university and an agency outsourced internal reviews of parking infringements. There are now 12 councils and agencies in Victoria that have or are setting up refund schemes for motorists affected by historical outsourcing of parking fine reviews.	Completed	March 2021	https://www.ombudsman.vic.gov.au/our-impact/investigation-reports/outsourcing-of-parking-fine-internal-reviews-a-follow-up-report/
Investigation into the detention and treatment of public housing residents arising from a COVID-19 'hard lockdown' in July 2020 (Included consultation from City of Melbourne and City of Moonee Valley councils over the course of investigations)	The Ombudsman’s investigation found that the detention of people at 33 Alfred St, North Melbourne appeared to contravene Charter of Human rights and that DHHS failed to provide people there timely information about their detention. The Ombudsman’s recommendations included that Victorian Government should apologise for the harm or distress caused by immediate lockdown and amend the Public Health and Wellbeing Act 2008 to include greater safeguards wound use of emergency detention powers, and that DHHS should ensure appropriate COVID-19 outbreak prevention, preparation and response measures are in place for other sensitive accommodation settings.	Completed	December 2020	https://www.ombudsman.vic.gov.au/our-impact/investigation-reports/investigation-into-the-detention-and-treatment-of-public-housing-residents-arising-from-a-covid-19-hard-lockdown-in-july-2020/#full-report
Investigation into credit card use at Warrnambool City Council	The conclusion of this investigation is that while there is evidence of lax practises by staff and poor judgement by some in senior management, credit card misuse was not widespread. Serious misuse was limited to one individual, although the level of abuse was greater than had been exposed or admitted to, in some instances also suggesting a deliberate intention to deceive.
